

Animal Adaptations

Across

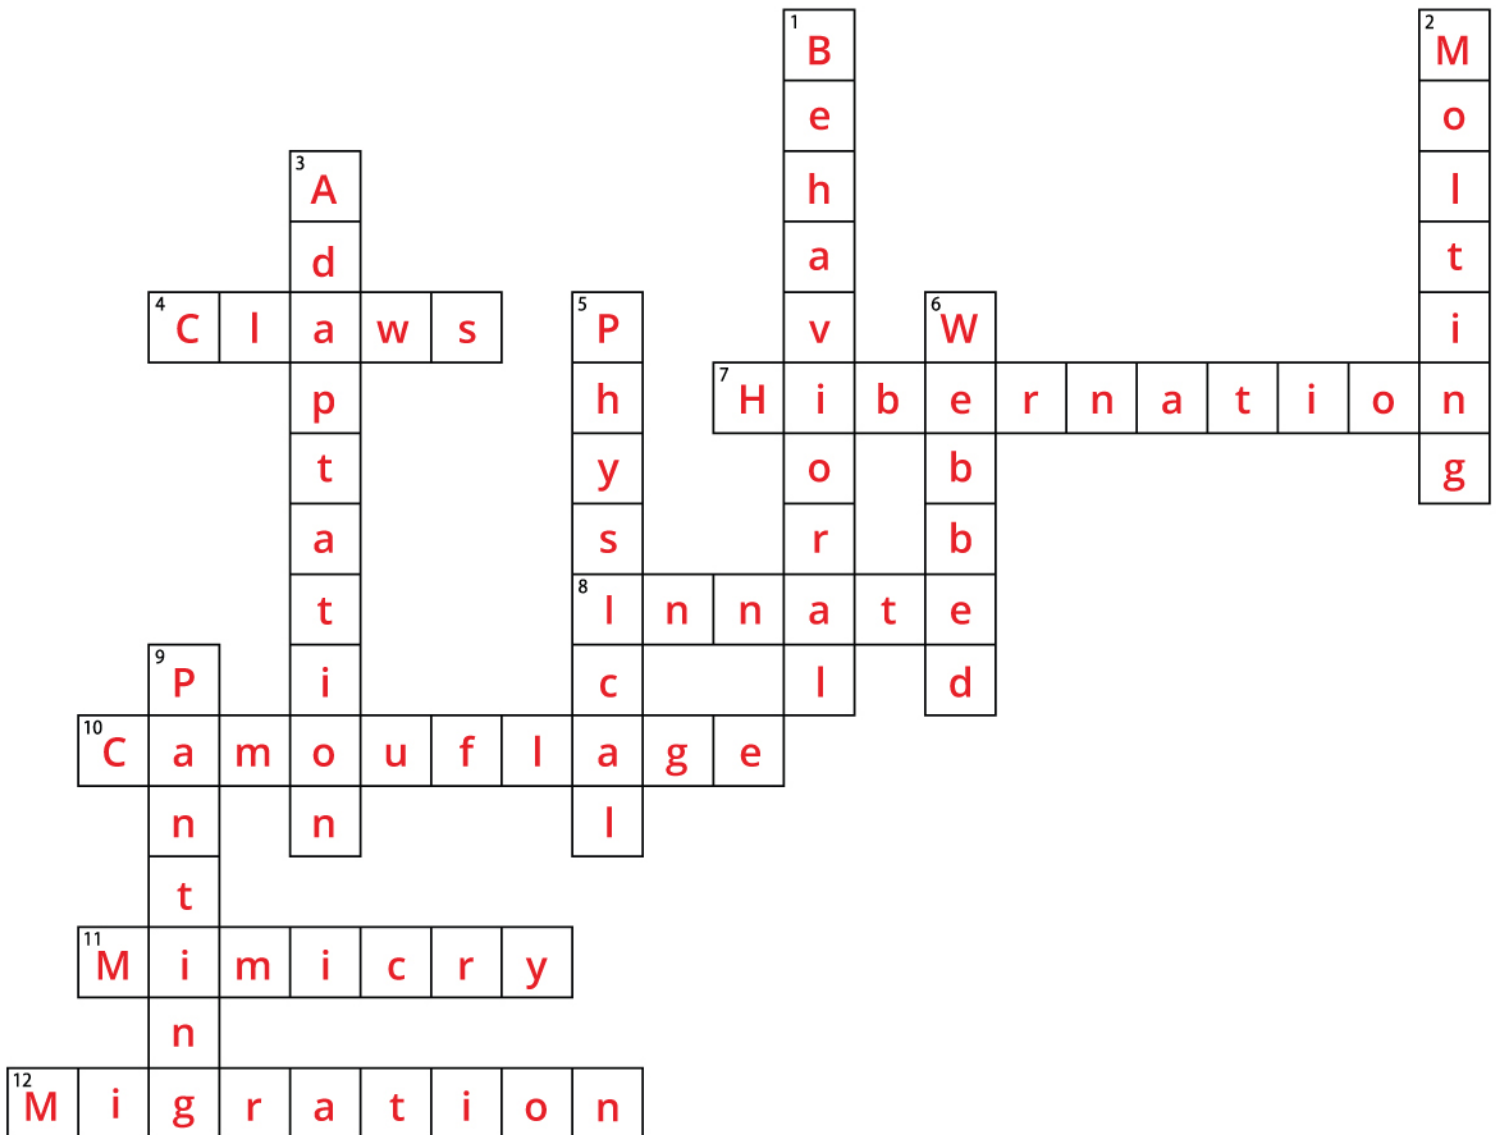

4. Badgers have sharp _____ for digging burrows to find food.
7. When an animal goes into a deep winter sleep
8. Behavior an animal is born with
10. An animal uses this to blend with the environment
11. When an animal looks like another one to avoid predators
12. An example of this is the relocation of Canadian geese in the winter

Down

1. The type of adaptations that are actions taken by animals to survive in their environments
2. The shedding of skin or fur in animals
3. A behavior or body part that helps an animal survive in its environment
5. _____ adaptations are specialized body parts that allows an animal survive in its environment
6. A duck has _____ feet that help it to swim
9. A means of decreasing body heat by evaporation through an animal's mouth and lungs

Animal Adaptations

(Solution)

Across

4. Badgers have sharp _____ for digging burrows to find food.
7. When an animal goes into a deep winter sleep
8. Behavior an animal is born with
10. An animal uses this to blend with the environment
11. When an animal looks like another one to avoid predators
12. An example of this is the relocation of Canadian geese in the winter

Down

1. The type of adaptations that are actions taken by animals to survive in their environments
2. The shedding of skin or fur in animals
3. A behavior or body part that helps an animal survive in its environment
5. _____ adaptations are specialized body parts that allows an animal survive in its environment
6. A duck has _____ feet that help it to swim
9. A means of decreasing body heat by evaporation through an animal's mouth and lungs