

LITERARY TERMS

CROSSWORD PUZZLE

Across

- Figure of speech suggesting something really is what it resembles
- Two-way conversation
- Place for an event
- Piece of poetry
- The main character
- The turning point in a story
- Story or symbol with a hidden meaning

Down

- Repetition of sounds in a sentence
- Overused or worn out phrase
- The use of an exaggeration or overstatement for effect
- Young woman (in distress?)
- Literary reference to a familiar thing
- Sequence of events
- Type or category of literature
- Poem divisions
- A type of writing that explains something

LITERARY TERMS

CROSSWORD PUZZLE

(Solution)

Across

5. Figure of speech suggesting something really is what it resembles

9. Two-way conversation

10. Place for an event

11. Piece of poetry

13. The main character

14. The turning point in a story

15. Story or symbol with a hidden meaning

Down

1. Repetition of sounds in a sentence
2. Overused or worn out phrase
3. The use of an exaggeration or overstatement for effect
4. Young woman (in distress?)
6. Literary reference to a familiar thing
7. Sequence of events
8. Type or category of literature
10. Poem divisions
12. A type of writing that explains something