

Volleyball

Vocabulary

Across

- The playmaker whose main responsibility is to set up the ball for the players
- When a player can't return a serve which should have been returned, resulting in an ace
- The players at the front court are used for offensive play while those at the back court are used for _____ play
- A fault, for example, lifting, scooping or carrying

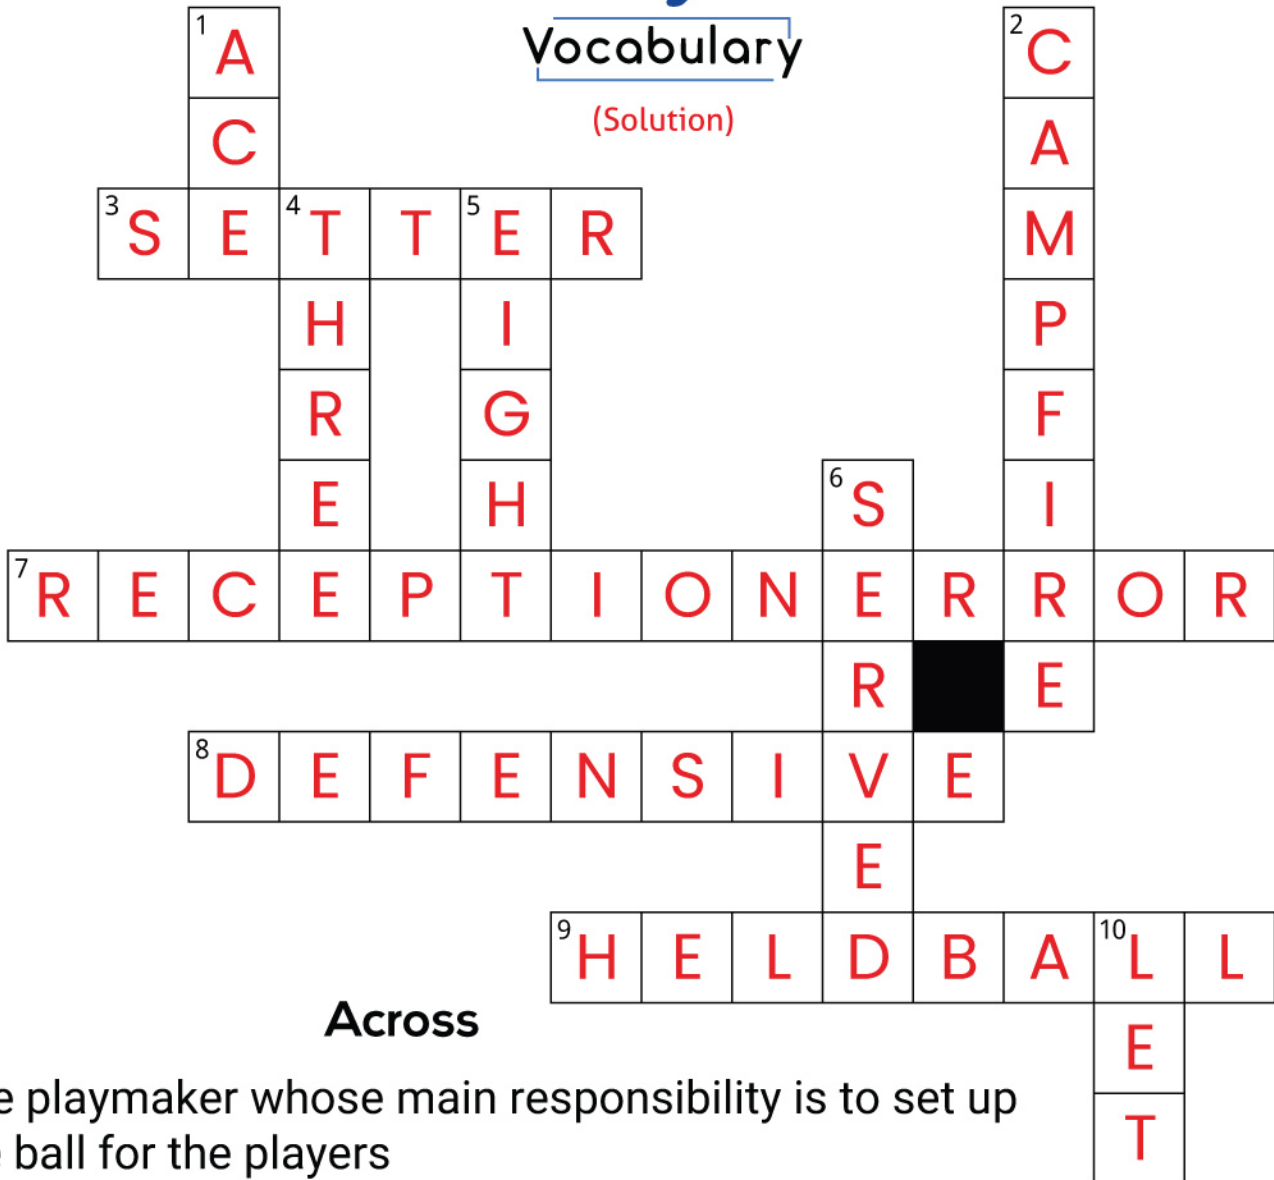

Down

- A blotched serve resulting in the opponent getting a point
- A ball that falls to the floor and is surrounded by two or more players
- Maximum number of contacts a team can have with the ball
- The amount of time you must serve within before the referee blows the whistle
- To start the game after the whistle blows, the ball has to be _____
- When a serve hits the top of the net and rolls onto to the other side, scoring a point

Volleyball

Vocabulary

(Solution)

Across

- The playmaker whose main responsibility is to set up the ball for the players
- When a player can't return a serve which should have been returned, resulting in an ace
- The players at the front court are used for offensive play while those at the back court are used for _____ play
- A fault, for example, lifting, scooping or carrying

Down

- A blotched serve resulting in the opponent getting a point
- A ball that falls to the floor and is surrounded by two or more players
- Maximum number of contacts a team can have with the ball
- The amount of time you must serve within before the referee blows the whistle
- To start the game after the whistle blows, the ball has to be _____
- When a serve hits the top of the net and rolls onto to the other side, scoring a point